Nancy

"Breast cancer gave me much more than it took away. It taught me important life lessons in setting priorities and savoring each new day. I always stop and admire the beauty of the sunrise and the majesty of the sunset. They are gifts."

Laurie

"My faith grew as I felt the power of prayer and had such a calm through my journey that I can only attribute to God. [...]

I met some of the most amazing survivors and have new friendships. [...] I would never wish breast cancer on anyone, but I am so glad I was given this journey."

Surviving Breast Cancer Since December 2010

Diagnosis: Stage I; ER+, PR+, HER2 Negative
Invasive Ductal Carcinoma

Maryann

"One good thing about having cancer: As one brilliant woman in the cancer survival circle said, 'it's all about time'. The truth is, it always was 'all about time', but once you have a life changing illness you never forget that this life is not a dress rehearsal! It is a constant reminder that life is fragile and temporary so I am living it the best way I can!"

Surviving Breast Cancer Since June 2012

Diagnosis: Stage III; PR+, ER+, HER 2 Negative
Lobular Carcinoma

Vira

"Thanks to my faith, family and friends, believe it or not, it now almost feels like it (breast cancer) never happened. I let that experience "develop" me...but I will not let it "define" me! [...] You, too, WILL come through this a stronger, more confident, more faithful person if you let this transform you in a POSITIVE way!"

Surviving Breast Cancer since January 2008

Diagnosis: Stage 1; ER+, PR+, HER2 Negative
Ductal Carcinoma

Sharon

"I have always looked for the deeper meaning in all aspects of my life. Finding the meaning in a stage IV cancer diagnosis was not immediate. It continues to unfold for me daily. To date, the experience has restored my connection to the kindness in others."

Surviving Breast Cancer since January, 2014

Diagnosis: Stage IV; Metastatic Breast Cancer, PR+, ER+,
